Dedication

To you, our most staunch and loyal supporter;

To you, who have made our memories bright and happy ones;

To you, who have filled our minds with the wonders of knowledge;

To you, who opened our hearts to the joys of human love and understanding:

To you, who have taught our hands to do useful work;

To you, who have guided our feet in the paths of truth and honor;

Yes, to You, Mrs. Nelle Bond Conrad, we do most humbly dedicate

the 1956 CULLOWHEEAN.

*Still be looking forward

Last Will and Testament

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1956

We, the Senior Class of 1956, being of sound mind and body, realizing our present position, being also aware of our mistakes during the more or less brief stay here, and endeavoring to leave the best of our belongings where they will be most beneficial do hereby make our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE I, SECTION I

To Dr. Ainsley and the members of the faculty, we wish to leave our most sincere thanks for their patience in dealing with us and the helpful instruction that they have so willingly given us.

ARTICLE II, SECTION I

To the Juniors, we give our sincere thanks for a wonderful time at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

ARTICLE III, SECTION I

We bequeath to the Freshmen of '56-'57 our faithful sponsors, Mrs. Killian and Mrs. Conrad. You'll find it easy to get along with them, if you hand in your daily assignments and remember to take out your chewing gum or hide it securely under your tongue before entering their classes.

ARTICLE IV

- I, Genevieve Adams, will my ability to be an old maid to Christine Robinson.
- I, Kenneth Adams, will my ability to get caught smoking in the restroom to Warren Hooper, who needs it.
- I, Wayne Adams, will my dislike of all these silly girls in Cullowhee High to "Wash" Hooper.
- I, Charles Ashe, will my Charles Atlas book to Bill Donaldson.
- I, Bobbie Bryson, will my ability to sit behind the bus driver on Number 12 to Christine Stevenson, who wants it anyhow.
- I, Charles Bishop, will my ability to stay single to Norwood Phillips.
- I, Genevieve Cline, will my seat in Senior Science to anyone who is dumb enough to take the course.
- I, Monroe Coggins, will my strong arm to Lee Adams if he will promise not to use it on the teachers.
- I, Charles Crawford, do will all my unfinished homework to anybody who has more than twenty-four hours in his day and is willing to burn the midnight oil.
- I, Johnnie Crawford, will my fortune to marry and be as happy as Jimmie and I are to Linda "Giggling" Hughes.
- I, Everlena Coward, will my ability to bum cigarettes to Margaret Hawks.
- I, Dale Edwards, will my ability to argue with teachers to Quincy Stewart, who will need it next year.
- I, Phoebe Ann Franklin, leave my love for Mrs. Flum to Joyce Wood.
- I, Larry Freeman, will nothing to nobody because I'm going to take it all with me.
- I, Wade Fox, will my tenor voice to Taylor Holden.
- I, Braxton Galloway, leave my ability to make some girl a "big" armful to Ronald Haskett.
- I, Eucella Hamilton, will to Mary Ruth Monteith my curly hair so she won't have to worry about rains making hers straight.
- I, Barbara J. Hooper, will my "specks" to Jean Bridges.
- I, Euadean Hooper, leave my ability to work Physics problems to Alvin Hooper.
- I, Ina Hooper, will my comb to Quincy Stewart, who needs it to comb her long red hair.
- I, Ora Sue Kilby, leave Mr. Flake to Jean Wood.
- I, Darrell Millsaps, will to Jimmy Bryson, Buddy Clark, and Vounell Wilson my ability to get out of work and stay out of trouble.
- I, Shirley Mills, will my Office Practice book back to Mrs. Buchanan who so gladly gave it to me the first of the year.
- I, Morris Monteith, will my ability to handle a jeep to James.
- I, Sue Mosses, will my ability to catch a husband to Christine Robinson. ONLY DON'T LET HIM GO OFF TO WAR!
- I, Jimmy Nicholson, leave my ability to hold Nancy Adams to anyone who thinks they can hold her as long as I did.
- I, Jimmy Norton, will my superior ability in managing the boys' basketball team to Kitt Hooper.
- I, Clyde Phillips, leave my ability to pass Senior English to George Stephens.
- I, Ruthine Reed, will to Mary Ann all fourteen of my jingling bracelets and hope she can slip in the house at night without waking everyone as I do.
- I, Barbara Jean Shelton, (gladly) leave part of my weight to "Sissy" in exchange for some of her height.
- I, Lois Slagle, will my ability to chew gum in Mrs. Conrad's room to Ronald Pressley.
- I, Jack Smith, will my bus driving ability to Tommy Norton.
- I, Martha Mae Smith, leave my ability to get an Air Force Man to "Sissy" Norton.
- I, Wayne Stephens, leave my quiet ways to Wayne Hooper.
- I, Annie Jo Taylor, leave my ability to daydream in English and still pass the course to Mamie Sue Wilkes.
- I, Bruce Tolbert, leave no one my love for Norma.
- I, Robie Jo Wilson, leave my last name to anyone who likes to sit in the last desk in the room.

ARTICLE V

We, the Senior Class, leave to all the loudmouthed Juniors the honor of sitting on the front seat in chapel so they can hear Dr. Ainsley's announcements more clearly.

ARTICLE VI

Seeing that our life as Superior Seniors is fast drawing to its close, we promise to haunt you from this year forth as the alumni of 1956.

Class Prophecy

Who was it that said there were no signs of success in the hearts and minds of those 1956 seniors of "good ole Cullowhee High?" Was it you? Ah yes, no doubt, but do you know as I look into my Crystal ball that I see many wonders to behold!

Jimmy Norton is the Editor of the Cullowhee Daily Gazette. Maybe all of Mrs. Wayte's encouragement was not wasted effort.

Who is that cute little nurse coming out of the Cullowhee Hospital? It is none other than Dale Edwards. No wonder all these boys are sick.

Is that mother Goose coming down the road? No --- it's Sue Moses and her seven boys.

Martha Mae Smith is back in Cullowhee after seeing almost all of the world after following Hoyt to his different assignments.

In my Crystal ball I see some beautiful paintings by Genevieve Adams. Gosh, can't she draw?????

I picked up a New York Times, and to my amazement I see Bobby Bryson has made headlines. She is marrying a millionaire.

What's this I see. It is Johnnie Crawford, going into Smith's Department Store to buy her eight children shoes.

Lower the gangplank !!!! Here comes General Charles Crawford in a Marine Suit.

My, look where Kenneth Adams is after 10 years promotion. As the owner of his own restaurant he has trade night and day.

Who is this I see with all that money? It is Monroe Coggins, a great actor, who has played opposite Marilyn Monroe. Of course, she's the grandma.

I see Jerry Stevens coaching a basketball team, made up of his own kids.

As I look through a world-wide newspaper, I see Bruce Tolbert has won 5,000,000 racing a '66 Ford.

"Take a letter, please, Miss Nicholson." The new president of the Tuckaseegee Bank thus addressing his secretary, Norma Nicholson.

Lois Slagle is modeling hair-do's in the Cullowhee Beauty Salon.

That Darrell Millsaps has got it made. He is the principal of the McKee Training School, and guess who his secretary is? Annie Jo Taylor, and she's not only his secretary, but his future wife.

Eucella Hamilton is playing the piano in Carnegie Hall. Just look at the people!!! No wonder she looks so pretty, and plays beautifully.

Robbie Jo Wilson is a waitress in the Tuckaseegee Drug Store, and by the way, she and her husband own it.

After graduating from high school, Shirley Mills went to Tennessee to work, and ended up marrying her boss.

As I look at the Sports Column in most newspapers, I see that Wayne Stevens is the manager of the New York Dodgers.

Jack Smith and Barbara Jean Shelton are happily married and have a very small baby, Jack Jr.

I see wings, and now I see the whole plane!! Who is in it??? It's Lieutenant Larry Freeman.

Euadean Hooper is teaching school in Canada. She really loves her work as a business teacher.

Charles Ashe is now singing in Hollywood. Come to the Cullowhee drive-in any night this week to see his latest movie "SING ALONG WITH CHARLIE."

Ina Hooper is keeping house. For Whom? Her husband of course.

Barbara Jean Hooper is working as a secretary for her Uncle Arthur in his new supermarket.

Wade Fox owns his own construction Company. Not only that but he got married to Lib Adams just after graduation and kept it a secret for five years.

Jimmy Nicholson and Nancy Adams are happily married and living in Tuckaseegee.

Ruthine Reed is now running the Highland's Florist Shop, 'cause her husband has to work otherwise.

Do you see what I see? It's Clyde Phillips, State Highway Patrolman.

I see quiet Charles Bishop giving orders to some poor little boys in Fort Jackson, who are going through their basic training. I'd never think his voice was so loud.

As far as I can see, Everlena Coward, and Lois Jean Wood are quarreling over L. C. Mathis. Better hurry, Everlena, You stand a good chance.

Ora Sue Kilby and Carlton Parker are married and living in Tacoma, Washington.

I see at the end of a full clothes line, Barbara Ward. She has devoted every effort to make "Pud" happy.

Who is this I see in Michigan? It is Genevieve Cline who is working in a doll factory.

Here is Pheoba Franklin in San Francisco, California, giving up her career to become a homemaker.

Morris Monteith is happily married, has three kids, and a '66 Cadillac.

The great artist, Braxton Galloway, is home again. While he is vacationing he will sketch some beautiful mountain scenes.

David Taylor is coaching a basketball team in Alabama. Strut your stuff, David.

Wayne Adams is the vice president of the U. S. Anyone with brains always comes to some good end.

I see way down in Texas, a very happy couple. They are none other than Densil Pressley and Kathleen Ammons. No wonder they're happy. They own three oil wells.

Sue Moses

Class History

In our many and varied activities we as a lively class have made some quite outstanding contributions, not so much to world affairs, as to the entertainment and mental collapse of our parents and teachers. At times, I fear, we have been rather irresponsible, and at others we have shown an outstanding amount of maturity and understanding.

We began our quest for knowledge in the fall of '43, and by the time we entered high school in '52 our ideas about the importance of this quest had changed radically. Just when we were about to get the "hang of things," they threw at us a few algebraic and chemical equations, French and Spanish idioms and irregular verbs, home economics house plans, and other such brainteasers as "Macbeth" and "Julius Caesar."

We, like so many classes, were thrilled and excited by our last year; but as this year draws to a close, we begin to think of the many friends we have made and the pleasant times we have shared. In the short time that we have left as Seniors, we hope to add many more wonderful memories to our already abundant store.

Yes, we look back over these school days and ponder them in our hearts. We know without a doubt that our Graduation Day is not an ending, but merely a beginning perhaps for something far better.

Our Poem

MEMORIES ARE MADE OF THIS

Along the halls of Cullowhee High

Our many footsteps have come and gone;

Now we wonder with a sigh

Why these years have so quickly flown.

Oh, why does time so quickly fly?

Our memories are so sweet and dear.

Of the twelve years that have passed us by

So many memories shall linger near.

Remember those days of rapturous delight

When work and play were daily pleasure;

Those days shall always remain a light

Among our many pleasant treasures.

In our future when things look blue

The words of our teachers we will remember;

Dear Cullowhee High we will think of you

And wish we were with you in September
